

Quotes from the participants about their experience of the seminar

- I was glad to hear what new technologies companies are currently working with!
- A wind energy master opens doors, but attending the seminar opens your eyes to the challenges that must be tackled by us, future wind energy engineers.
- I got a unique view into the inside of the industry and valuable network, which I am sure have put me into a stronger position for my future career.
- It has been really beneficial for me to see the challenges the wind energy companies can face, what is their next step, and how my profile could match with their expectancies.
- The seminar build a bridge between the students and the real world industry for offshore wind energy!
- The seminar increased my knowledge of - and interest in - offshore wind energy and qualified me to apply for jobs in the energy sector, which will be easy since I got exposed to the energy companies, created a network and gained interest of moving to Esbjerg.
- It is a worth event to attend.
- This seminar is a great opportunity to gain a lot of information, a chance to meet new people from all over the world and get an insight from top management of the leading companies in the sector.

- It's a wonderful experience with people from all around the world, a chance to gain new knowledge and on top boosting my career opportunities.
- The seminar was well structured, focused on the real problems of the sector and a good synergy industry-development.
- Great opportunity to learn more of the field, excellent networking and good openings for jobs and future career opportunities.
- The offshore wind seminar was amazing and has improved my knowledge of offshore wind industry, and provided a medium to network with companies in this industry.
- Very engaging experience, great opportunity to know the challenges in offshore wind and to get in contact with companies within the sector, as well as networking. Excellent!
- It was a very interesting week which opened up my mind and helped me to visualize the entire activities in offshore wind energy generation, opportunities and challenges.

- One of the most fulfilling and beautiful weeks of my life.
- Insightful, engaging and acutely inspiring; all the traits one would expect from a seminar in which highly experienced field experts explained what they do!
- Pleasant experience, great organization, lots of new contacts... in one word: recommended!
- It's helpful to career planning.
- The seminar not only improves our theory knowledge, but also extends our vision on the industry application.
- Wind will change the perception of making electricity.
- A well planned, comprehensive and rewarding seminar - both socially and professionally.

- It was exciting to meet and talk with people from the energy industry, thanks to the seminar.
- It is a pretty good seminar.
- A very good seminar!
- Exceptional 'n' days with extraordinary 'n' people, organized by Aalborg University Esbjerg is always equal to excellence.
- It was a good event to get knowledge about the industry problems and to find my research related companies.

